

depending upon the importance of the subject matter of the notices and have suggested that the items relating to Cilling Attention Notices and notices under rule 3-2 should be disposed of within one hour after the question hour. The Committee have also recommended that the House may sit daily from 12.00 noon to 6.00 P.M. so that atleast 4 hours are available for budget discussions every day.

One more suggestion made by the Committee is that arrangements may be made to furnish replies to the notices of members which are not disposed of in the House.

The Committee have further recommended that the House may adjourn tomorrow i.e., today and reassemble on the 25th June, 1980 instead of 23rd June, 1980 as already announced.
